

Development Beyond Aid

Financialization and Socio-Political Change in Africa's Global Infrastructure

International Workshop at the University of Bayreuth | 7th – 9th June 2023

Convened by Prof. Dr. Andrea Behrends, Prof. Dr. Jana Hönke and Dr. Tom McNamara

Workshop Programme

7th June

Arrival

7 pm Informal Dinner

8th June

9:00 am Arrival

9:15–10:00 am Welcome by Organizers and Introduction

10:00–12:00 am Session 1: Changing Sources and Cultures of International Finance

- Raoul Bunskoek (University of Bayreuth): Assessing the nature of Chinese-styled financial lending for infrastructure investments in Africa – a cultural historical approach
- James Musonda (University of Liege): Vendanta, Konkola Copper Mines and Indian investment in Zambia
- Remadji Hoinathy (University of N'Djamena): Governance and finance in the 'Newcomers' of African oil

12:00–1:00 pm Lunch

1:00–3:00 pm Session 2: Convergence and Divergence among Chinese and African Labour Norms

- Thomas McNamara (La Trobe University): The "Emic Chinese" and opportunities for labour based resistance in Zambia
- Miriam Driessen (Baldy Center for Law and Social Policy): Fashioning labourers, Chinese labour in Ethiopian road construction
- Mia Yifan Yang (University of Bayreuth): Travelling models of labour regulation in Chinese projects in West Africa

3:00–3:30 pm Afternoon Tea

- 3:30–5:30 pm Session 3: Conflict, Governance and Investment in Insecure Environments
- Jana Hönke (University of Bayreuth): Infrastructure globalities: Chinese companies and emerging practices at the African frontier
 - Franka Vaughan (University of Melbourne): Conflicts, economics and identity construction in Liberia
 - Asenath Maboe (Kisii University): Trade: Hard or soft infrastructure? China's Maritime Silk Road initiative and what it means for Kenya

7 pm Conference Dinner

9th June

- 9:00–12:00 am Session 4: Development Projects and International Concepts
- Andrew Tang (La Trobe University): Solidarity/development: The case of the MST agro-ecology campaign in Zambia
 - Han Cheng (Chinese Academy of Sciences): Grounding China's Belt and Road Initiative
 - Matthew Mabefam (University of Melbourne): Finance-induced unemployment in Ghana
 - Andrea Behrends (University of Bayreuth): Travelling models: Actors and institutions of development in Africa

12:00–2:30 pm Lunch

2:30–4:00 pm Closing Discussion

Key points:

- Similarities and themes among studies of South-South investment
- Differences between “China in Africa” and other non-DAC nations
- Opportunities and challenges for African governments, labour and civil society
- Opportunities for reconsidering the role of the Global North in Development